

THE

Sacred Heart Church

Presbytery, Quex Road, Kilburn, London, NW6 4PS

Come along and join us at our festive wreath making workshop for families bereaved by knife crime, murder and manslaughter

on Saturday 7th December from 12pm - 5pm

Please come along and join us for an afternoon of creativity, tea and mince pies at our festive wreath making and peer support workshop. We will be decorating wreaths and personalising baubles in memory of our loved ones. We will also have a trained counsellor available to you throughout the day.

You are not alone

Create a keepsake in memory of your loved one

Support for families bereaved by knife crime, murder and manslaughter

Please get in touch if you would like to join us so that we can reserve you a place. Please contact Tracey or Brooke at The Josh Hanson Trust.

M 0796 879 8864

E info@thejoshhansontrust.org

More information available at the joshhansontrust.org

